

Christ Speaks

And for the sake of all the multitudes who will read this message in the years to come, I will now speak in the most simple words and friendly tones possible. I have come to ask for your trust and to assure you that as you reach out to me, so will I send my rays of Divine Love back to you.

I am speaking to you in this relaxed, loving way because I am bringing you a message that will bring joy and thanksgiving to thousands of people of all nationalities who have been torn emotionally by doubts regarding the Christian Dogma but will cause confusion and pain among those people who revere the Christian Church.

I truly grieve for you, but when you have recovered from these humanly shocking but true revelations, you will be gladly grateful and will wonder why it was not exposed a hundred years ago.

It must be made available to those who reject my words as being fraudulent, and to those who are prepared to think and reason for the sake of ascending to a higher level of spiritual consciousness.

Why am I bringing such a message if it will cause much pain? I am bringing it because it is the only means by which —

New Beginnings can be set in motion in the world.

It is the only way that mankind generally can be made to realise that no Deity will transform man's thoughts and behaviour.

Only Man himself can create a new global social system in which all people are treated equally and with deep compassion and respect, and who work with a happy willingness both for themselves and the common good.

Only man can do this for himself — but first of all — he must want to do it.

He will only want to do it when he fully understands the hidden Laws of the Universe as I have explained them in CHRIST'S LETTERS.

You will ask why this wonderful form of Utopia has not been established already?

And I, the Christ, will tell you truly. It is because Christians, worldwide, for the last two thousand years have been praying for the world order to be transformed according to the Will of God. But things have only gotten worse.

Why is this? you will ask. There will probably be many among you who will now point a finger at me saying:

'What good have you been to us? Why haven't you done something about the state of the world? The Church says you were crucified for our sins but what earthly good has that done us?'

My dear, dear friends, you have spoken truly. I, the Ascended Spirit of your beloved Teacher, Jesus, have been unable to change a single thing on your planet or amongst your many populations.

Listen well and believe me: Christians pray for the Will of God to be done — but — what does their Church believe is the WILL of their GOD?

Two thousand years of prayers for the world to be rescued by the grace of the Will of God appear to have been unheeded by the God of the Holy Bible and the New Testament. But perhaps throughout this time they have been answered.

When I was on earth in the persona of Jesus, I taught the people that:

'Those who kill by the sword will die by the sword.'

and

'You reap what you sow.'

and

'Love your brother as yourself'.

and

'Turn the other cheek.'

People realised I truly meant these statements and that killing was wholly wrong and should not be countenanced under any circumstances.

But — Christianity, Religious Ruler of a large section of the world population — which should have outlawed all war for any reason — permitted wars to break out, cities to be destroyed, and millions of people to be killed. Christians have tortured and destroyed one another. Why could this happen if Jesus Christ was truly the Christian Leader?

I, the Christ, will dare to face the Christian community and tell you WHY it has happened.

My dear, dear people. Do you remember that when I walked the earth in the persona of Jesus, I frequently told people:

'Your FAITH has made you whole.'

'Your FAITH will move mountains.'

Simply stated, I have said:

'The kind of life you will experience begins in the mind.'

The true reason for your downbeat lives, plagued by ill-health, poverty, enmity, ignorance, and unhappiness, is your strongly held fundamental belief system.

Your Life is fashioned by your deepest and most strongly held beliefs, and by those ideas and opinions in which you have the strongest faith.

In what do the majority of Christians have the strongest religious faith? They believe that their Christian God compassionately decreed that his beloved Son, Jesus, should be born on earth to a Virgin and crucified and killed in order to pay the price for world sinning.

And, as some churches claim, 'Man's sins will be washed clean in the blood of the Lamb'.

Now, my dear, dear people, are you not reminded of the God of Moses whose anger against men was appeased by the burning of lambs and birds? Are you not reminded of Solomon's glorious temple built especially for the people's burnt sacrifices of lambs and birds to plead to their God for leniency and even forgiveness for their constant sinning?

What kind of beliefs do these words portray? — belief in wrong doing of a magnitude worthy of punishment. A belief that it was possible to take the lives of animals, birds, and then Jesus, and load them with people's sinning in order to have it completely forgiven. What kind of devious ethic was promulgated here? What does it say about the ethics of the initiators of such a belief?

What kind of consciousness would such imaginings create? And when such consciousness began to materialize in the events and experiences of the world's Christian inhabitants, of what kind do you suppose they would be likely to be?

Is this not the same God of the Holy Bible, God's Sacred Word, who sent plagues upon the Egyptians and whose Angels killed all the Egyptian first-born children and animals when the Israelites, led by Moses instructed by God, escape from Egypt? My beloved people, this history of the Jews is the Great Event celebrated in the yearly Passover.

The Christian Church has not outlawed war. How can it when their God has countenanced war as a means of procuring more land for His Chosen people and Christians?

Can you now see why the chaotic state of the world remains the same despite the prayers of the Christian Congregations?

And then you have been told that your sins have been washed clean in the blood of the lamb — and who is the Lamb?

Why, yes, it is I ... who, more than 2000 years ago, in the body of Jesus, died on the cross.

Does it not now become crystal clear -- WHY -- prayers for the Will of God to improve world conditions have been answered?

It is the Will of the Biblical God that killing and slaughter should be an expedient means to settle swiftly a score between nations and people in conflict.

I speak specially and personally to those dear people who are able to set to one side their Christian convictions and review my following question objectively and logically.

How do you think I, the ascended Christ, fully radiating DIVINE CONSCIOUSNESS and honest truth in my every thought, have viewed all the 'UNTRUTHS' spoken by many beautiful, dedicated souls, who have truly believed that such a God existed?

I have only had the greatest compassion for such people because the Truth of Existence was unknown to them and they lived in ignorance of their true relationship to the Father. They saw some of the Truth of Being but only imperfectly.

If only such precious souls, so dedicated to living lives surrendered to the Father, had known the full Truth of what I wanted to teach them, they could have surmounted every obstacle and lived in harmony and abundance – and – shown their congregations how to do the same.

AND

One of the most important things I have dearly wanted to tell you since I died on the cross is:

Sin is a man-made concept.

It was a belief fashioned in the dark ages of mankind when the ordinary hurts inflicted by one person on another were said to be a sin against God. It was a word first coined to make people feel guilty, to separate the wrong-doers from those who obeyed the laws of the land, and in those terms the word 'sin' was perfectly valid.

However, the introduction of God into this equation was mythical and a lie!

To learn about the true nature of your SOURCE, study my LETTERS.

You will see that your Source of Being is indeed within you, all around you, and filling the skies and all space but IT does not think with a human brain nor think the thoughts of mortals.

How could THAT Which gave you being, that ALL ENCOMPASSING INTELLIGENCE-LOVE from whom you have come, possibly be interested in the little 'goings-on' of your planet or want to punish them? What a pagan concept in this day and age when science has informed you truly – that everything in the entire universe and galaxy of stars, is basically energy.

I have fully explained the NATURE of this ENERGY in my LETTERS.

You may ask why I have returned to give you this message. I have returned, and am giving myself a place in the ethers of your planet, to help you begin to dissolve all the bad consciousness vibrations which have accumulated from the gross thinking and actions of selfish people. I have come to inform you that a punishing God does not exist. Your Source of Being is pure LOVE ...but... you live within a consistent, unchanging LAW:

You Reap as you Sow.

Do you realise that this dark, black accumulation of enmity and hate-filled consciousness, arising from countries, religions and people gradually manifests as events and experiences on your planet?

How can I not return when you have all this accumulation of highly charged consciousness negativity to deal with and the atom bomb threatening your very existence?

And when I was in Galilee, did I not promise to return like lightning flashes across the sky from East to West? Is this not a description of the Internet where my Letters were first presented to the world?

I have come to help you build a higher Vision of perfect life on an earth that yields abundantly.

A vision of people living in love and harmony, filled with creative ideas, and governing with love and compassion, so that all people may be perfectly nourished and educated according to their natural talents.

I have told you that it will be impossible to help the world population take part in this great creative adventure if the churches persist in teaching the pernicious Christian Dogma and in offering the meaningless form of prayers sent up to a mythical God.

I say this to you beloved people, because I have truthfully and honestly exposed the negative realities behind your deepest beliefs. Only you, beloved people, can bring about change and spiritual growth into DIVINE RADIANCE of BEING in which DIVINE LOVE reigns supreme.

I have done it because there has been no living person who could undertake this great task of cleansing of consciousness for the world, because of the risk to themselves. Imagine the anger and chaos if some highly placed individual had dared to speak boldly about the myths and fallacies of sacred Christian beliefs?

However, the truth of what I have said is to be found in the Bible, the Old Testament, said to be God's Holy Word. Read what is said about Jesus' death on the cross and payment of your sinning. Read about the sacrifices and the wars in the Old Testament. Come out of your little caverns of ignorance and mental comfort and discover the truth.

No Pope or Cardinal or Archbishop can deny the truth expressed in this message. I beg you, for the sake of a —

Blessed Future for the World to speak amongst your family, your friends and colleagues about CHRIST'S WAY to work to cleanse the world consciousness of crime and war and to establish a —

DIVINE ERA OF LOVE, PEACE AND FULFILMENT OF CREATIVE TALENT

I am the Shepherd of CHRIST'S WAY, author of CHRIST's LETTERS

MY LETTERS were given to the world to provide people with the knowledge which was given me during my six weeks of illumined consciousness in the desert before I started healing and teaching.

They reveal, as clearly as possible in your language, the true nature of Your Source of Being. They show people how to live love-enriched lives under any circumstance and how to create happy relationships and events. I reveal that our Source, although universal, is also personal for us. I said truly when I was on earth, 'The Father knows your needs', 'Ask, and it will be given you.'

To help you take the first step on CHRIST'S WAY I ask all who feel called to take part in this creation of newness of spirit and spiritualised civilisation, to read the passage below, taken from my LETTER 1. They are the words given to me by the 'Father' when I was enlightened in the desert.

They are the description of man's own powers of creativity which he daily uses for his own good or harm. I beg you to read and memorise these words if you can, because I am UNIVERSALLY LONGING for you to leave the illogicality of the Christian Doctrine in order to rise into Spiritual Sanity and Joy.

You can only hope to achieve this by fully understanding the enormous creative power you potentially possess in your minds to fashion beautiful lives for yourselves. You can become units of radiant energy gradually encompassed during the time you give to prayer and meditation.

Can you now see that I, the Christ, have returned to you to do some wonderful good on earth for you, providing I am accepted and acknowledged.

God explained (in the desert):

'All the problems of harsh existence lay within the thought processes of man himself!'

Only people's 'consciousness forms', their thoughts, words, feelings, actions create a dense barrier between their consciousness and the Universal Creative Consciousness interpenetrating the universe in every leaf, tree, insect, bird, animal and human being.

I was also shown the LAWS OF EXISTENCE controlling the human ability to create new circumstances and environment, relationships, achievement or failure, prosperity or poverty —

Whatever man profoundly BELIEVES himself to be, good or bad, that will he become.

Whatever man FEARS others will do to him, so will they do.

Whatever man HOPES that others will do to him, he must first do to them, since he is then creating a 'consciousness pattern' which will return to bless him to the extent he has blest others.

Whatever disease man DREADS so will he become prey to it for he will have created a 'consciousness pattern' of the very thing he least wants to experience.

Whatever is sent forth from man's mind and heart – returns to him in due course in some form or another, but remember that like always breeds like. Strongly held emotional thoughts are 'consciousness seeds' planted within a man's own orbit of consciousness. These will grow, bearing a like harvest for his reaping.

These are the fruits of free will.
